

LOCAL HEALTH

Locally owned and operated primary healthcare services across the Manawātū region.

We believe in the benefits of localised decision making when it comes to improving health outcomes for our communities, and proudly employ some of the region's most experienced healthcare practitioners.

Where we came from

We started in 2016 as a group of doctors who wanted a sustainable way to respond to the changing needs of both our communities and our healthcare professionals. Originally known as Feilding Health Care, we have since grown to include practices in Palmerston North and Ashhurst.

With over 30,000 patients and 120 staff, our focus is in ensuring continuity of local care for patients, while providing flexibility, peer support and professional development for healthcare professionals.

Our goal is to keep general practices locally owned and provide a sustainable pathway to flexible work or retirement for practice owners.

Walking the talk

We have a variety of former practice owners, GP's and patients who are happy to talk about their experience with Local Health.

If you'd like to hear more - please let us know.

Since retiring, it has been reassuring to have this option when stepping away from my role as a GP practice owner. I had peace of mind knowing that my practice would remain in good hands under a sound business model, and that my patients could continue to enjoy receiving the high-quality care they deserve.
